REESE KNOCKS STONEMAN DOWN IN PUBLIC STREET.

Lively Encounter Between Editors in Minmi-Stoneman Had Attacked Roese and Dean.

Miami, May 6 .- Joseph H. Reese, editor of the Miams Metropolis, and F. B. Stoneman, editor of the Miami Morning News, were principals in a lively encounter here this afternoon in front of the court house. According to those who witnessed the affair Reese knocked Stonemon down befure the belligerents could be separated.

The trouble grew out of a publication in the morning which reflected on Reese and S. Robo Dean, the manager of the Metropolis. Considerable excitement followed the attair, but friends of both parties believe that there will be further trouble between the two.

Joe Reese is well known in Tallahassee, having been for several years connected with the publication of L'Engle's Sun, and is one of the most vigorous newspaper men in the State.

Afternoon Tea at Mrs. Ellis' Home.

One of the prettiest afternoon teas of the sesson was that on Saturday afternoon last, when Mrs. W. H. Ellis entertained from 4 to 6 o'clock at her lovely home on Clinton Street.

Receiving with Mrs. Ellis were Mrs. Hocker and Miss Sarah Raney, all three wearing pretty lingerie dresses.

In the hall there were vases and bowls of vivid red pomgranite blossoms and red and yellow nasturtiums every- can be tilled. where.

Our citizens are getting more awake now, and are thinking more of the splendid worth of Wakulla dirt than formerly. Then they are moving a little faster in educational work, this district having voted to tax themselves to increase the interest in school affairs, and now they have a seven month's term with better salaried teachers.

That most gifted and accomplished young lady and most excellent teacher, Miss Eva Hammett, finished her school term at the pretty little village of Wakulls on Friday, the 29 ult. In the examinations and recitations of the children they showed much skill and loving direction had been bestowed on them by their teacher. They certainly need her again; so may some young man.

The exercises being over, Rev. W E. Dorsey and Mr. Wilkinson made short talks to the school and patrons, urging a still greater exertion in making the lives of children happy and me

We again find ourselves when we try to tell about a Woodville or Wakulia open air feast, but excuse us for we have eaters and are ashamed. We let it out: we could eat a box-full. Mrs. B. F.
